

ANUSA Voucher Program

The ANUSA Voucher Program is designed to provide undergraduate and ANU College students facing financial hardship access to groceries around Canberra.

A maximum total of $100 worth of grocery vouchers can be granted per student per semester at the discretion of ANUSA Student Assistance Team.

Aims:

- To provide funds for essential groceries to students who are struggling to afford essential items.
- To offer alternate means of providing assistance to students who do not qualify for any other means of assistance. For example students who have already used their ANUSA Emergency Grant for the year.
- To provide groceries to students who are unable to access food aid due to availability of food aid supplies, dietary needs, religious needs etc.

Eligibility criteria

- Enrolled undergraduate or ANU College student at the ANU;
- Struggling to afford basic living costs such as food, hygiene items;
- Have not accessed $100 worth of grocery vouchers through the ANUSA Grocery Voucher Program in the current semester.
